This website is meant for educational purposes ONLY and taking it seriously is a mistake.

1. Why

Learning

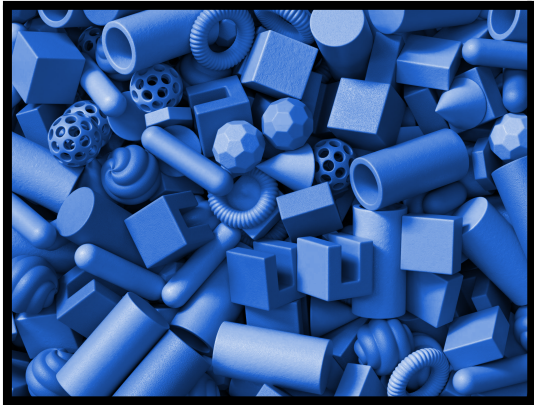

This is just a playground for me to learn and play around with html, css and eventually javascript. This should in no way be taken seriously.

Updates

I only update the website a couple times a week and it's only meant to be a side project.

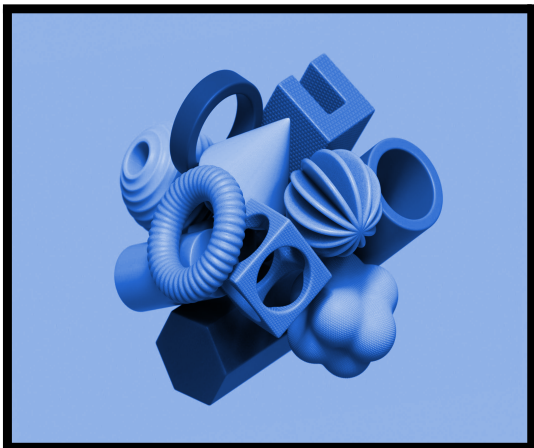

BUT...

You can still take these things seriously:

My Blogs

I will be posting infrequently in my blog section of the website.

My Recommendations

You can absolutely take my recommendations seriously. All of my recommendations I feel strongly about.
